

OOT The Out on Town

February 16 to March 9, 2005

I received a CD from a band out of Oxford England called "The Thieves" and they're coming our way to the Khyber on March 8th. They've got a kinda retro sound and if you like JET? You'll like these cats. Oh they definitely have a British rock sound about them, I love the song "Tales from the White Line" will we hear them on the airwaves here? If you're smart you will check out www.theband-ofthieves.com for more info as I have always preferred to be on top of a hit months before everyone else :)
